USF School of Music – Graduate Studies
M.M. Concentration in Instrumental Conducting (MID) .......... 34 Credit Hours

COMMON CORE (9)

- MUS 6793 Techniques of Research in Music and Music Education ........................................... 3
- MUT 6545 Analysis of 18th and 19th Century Music .................................................................. 3
- MUT 6575 Analysis of 20th Century Music ............................................................................... 3

ADDITIONAL COMMON CORE REQUIREMENT (2-3)

- Choose one:
  - MUH 6057 Intercultural Composers ..................................................................................... 3
  - MUL 6375 20th Century Music Literature ............................................................................... 3
  - MUT 6586 Critical Analysis: Music History ............................................................................. 2

SPECIALIZATION (17)

- Conducting: 8 credits from the following, including one advanced course taken twice:
  - MUG 6307 Wind Band Conducting ......................................................................................... 2
  - MUG 6308 Advanced Wind Band Conducting (may be taken twice) .................................... 2
  - MUG 6309 Orchestral Conducting ............................................................................................ 2
  - MUG 6315 Advanced Orchestral Conducting (may be taken twice) ..................................... 2

- Literature: Choose one:
  - MUL 6555 Wind Band Literature ........................................................................................... 3
  - MUL 6505 Symphonic Literature ............................................................................................. 3

- Major Ensembles: MUN 6xxx (in consultation with major professor) ..................................... 4

- Graduate Recital: MUS 6976 .................................................................................................. 2

MUSIC ELECTIVES (5-6)

May include additional ensembles and any academic and/or applied courses.

The Common Core for all M.M. degree concentrations requires MUS 6793 and selections from a list of history, literature, and theory courses. These include MUH 6057; MUL 6375, 6505; and MUT 6545, 6575, 6586, 6665. The Instrumental Conducting curriculum enables the student to employ most or all of these courses through the Common Core requirements, the Specialization Literature requirement, and Music Electives.

Updated 01-18-2017 WPH